

RECENT ADVANCES IN AI FOR NATIONAL SECURITY

13–15 November 2019, Lexington, MA

Artificial Intelligence (AI) Landscape
AI Applications for National Security
AI Future Directions

<https://llevnts.ll.mit.edu/raains>
raains@ll.mit.edu

 LINCOLN LABORATORY
MASSACHUSETTS INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY

REQUIRED COLLATERAL SECURITY CLEARANCE FORM

RAAINS Workshop: 13–15 November

Completed form due 31 October

RESET

PRINT

No letters, visit requests, messages, or long-term visit requests on file at MIT Lincoln Laboratory will be used as approved admittance to the above event. The individual named below requests authorization to attend the above event. It is understood that all of day one and the day two afternoon session's Security Classification will be SECRET//NOFORN.

PART 1. TO BE COMPLETED BY ATTENDEE

Name _____
Last First Initial SSN _____
(Note: SSNs will not be stored)

Company Name _____ Date of Birth _____

Company Address _____ Place of Birth _____

Signature _____ Citizenship _____

PART 2. TO BE COMPLETED BY ATTENDEE'S SECURITY OFFICIAL

Security Clearance Certification

Attendee's Clearance Level _____ Cage Code _____

Signature of Security Officer (POC) _____ Date _____ Tel. No. _____

Print name and title of Security Officer (POC) _____

Lincoln Laboratory supports the position of the Office of the Secretary of Defense that "Need-to-Know" determinations are made by the organization disclosing classified information.

PLEASE FAX COMPLETED FORM TO

MIT Lincoln Laboratory Security Services Department Fax: (781) 981-6718. To confirm receipt of your fax, e-mail llconf@ll.mit.edu

The information on this form is protected and secured from public view and access in accordance with MIT Lincoln Laboratory Security Procedures protecting personally identifiable information in accordance with Massachusetts General Laws.